

UNIVERSAL PRAYER) PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

December 8, 2019

The Second Sunday of Advent

Lector: Our response will be: Lord, come and save us.

For the Church to herald the coming of Christ through deeds of service and through the care we show for all those around us. We pray...

For this faith community, that all members of the Body of Christ hear the challenge of John the Baptist to prepare for the life-transforming changes the coming of the Lord will bring. We pray...

For our catechumens and candidates, may Advent be a season of grace and may our community welcome them just as Christ welcomed us. We pray...

For our retired religious: brothers, sisters and priests: may they always be remembered for their sacrifice and dedication to God's people. We pray.

For all those who are homeless, that as the days grow colder in much of the country, they may be kept warm and safe all winter. We pray...

For those who lack freedom: those who are trapped in abusive situations and those suffering from addictions, that they experience renewal through God's presence and love. We pray...

For the faithful departed: may all who believed in the mercy of God now experience that mercy forever, including Dianne Beseda (Bess-uh-duh), Dian (Diane) Sabo, Joseph Cannon, parishioners and Barbara Kessinger, sister of Carol Burtnett.

AND...

7:30 am	Andrew Powell
9:30 am	Fred Wessendorf
11:30 am	Ann Ianiro
5:00 pm	Joseph P. Bertone

We pray...

Lord, come and save us.
